ARTHUR MILLER

November 13/65

Dear Harold Weisberg;

I'm leaving for Europe at the end of the month and won't be back for several months. There just won't be time to read your book. I think if you haven't already done so you ought to try George Braziller. I don't really know any of the other publishers excepting Viking, and they evidently aren't interested. I should think Braziller would be interested in principle; what the business side of it will be I couldn't say, of course. I'm sorry to be so strapped for time, but hope you can understand.

Sincerely yours,
Arthur Miller
